

July 17, 2022

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce that the Elling Eide Center in Sarasota (FL) will host the 26th Annual Southeast Early China Roundtable (SEECR), November 11-13th, 2022.

The conference will begin with Dr. Keith Knapp's keynote address entitled "The Birth of Popular Confucianism: Evidence from Dunhuang of the Creation of the Twenty-four Filial Exemplars" at 5:30 p.m. on November 11 (Friday) at the Elling Eide Library.

We welcome proposals for presentations focusing on early China from a variety of disciplinary perspectives, including anthropology, history, archaeology, art history, literature, philosophy, and religious studies. Please send a short abstract (250 words) of your presentation and full institutional contact information to Dr. Matthew Wells (mwells@ellingoeide.org) by September 1. Early submissions are welcome.

In accordance with SEECR tradition, lodging and meals will be provided for presenters.

If you have any questions, please contact me at mwells@ellingoeide.org

Sincerely,

Matthew Wells

Director of Research
Elling O. Eide Center
<https://ellingoeide.org/>